Dear Mr. Raymer:

Thank you for requesting a speaker from the Central Intelligence Agency to address the luncheon meeting at the Baytown Kiwanis Club on Thursday, 31 January.

Unfortunately, we will be unable to accommodate you. As I mentioned on the telephone, we do not have a speakers' bureau per se nor is there an Agency representative available in your area.

Enclosed for your interest and information is our brochure, Intelligence: The Acme of Skill. We thank you for your interest.

Sincerely,

Public Affairs

Dear Sir:

I'd be very interested in having a representative of your agency speak to our local Kiwanis Club, at Noon on Thursday, January 31, 1985.

Our luncheon normally consist of approximately 75 local businessmen and I feel a program by your agency would be highly informative and beneficial to them. If at all possible, I would appreciate advice from you by phone at 713-422-8231, as to whether or not your agency can fill this speaking engagement. If not, I'll obviously need enough lead time to find a substitute speaker.

Should you need any additional information from me, please do not hesitate to call. My card is enclosed.

Yours, truly,
